World of rhymes

Project Objective

To make a platform for various artists in the field of rhymes.

Project Scope

The project targets on providing users with something that they can relate to. Taking the input of situations from the viewers in mind, a response will be posted on the website in the form of rhymes which will be somrthing that the person who requested for it could relate to.

Project Purpose

To connect artists from different places and also give users something they can relate to.

Project Module Description

The following features are to be a part of the web based applicatio.

 1)The most significant feature of this web based application is that it provides the users with content that they can relate to and not the stuff from around the world or their friends which is a common feature of leading social networking websites,

 2)Another feature provided is a platform for different poets,rap artists to showcase their works under world of rhymes with the approval of admin,

 3)In the future of the web based application features of adding multimedia for the users can be considered by the admin,

4)Dedicated segmetswill attractive user interface are considered to be developed in order to gather more and more users towards the web application.